

CENTRAL INSTITUTE OF INDIAN LANGUAGES

Scheme for Protection & Preservation of Endangered Languages

5 DAY WORKSHOP ON LANGUAGE DOCUMENTATION & REVITALIZATION

26th February to 2nd March, 2018

At present several projects on documenting endangered languages are going on simultaneously in India and in most of these projects there is hardly any emphasis on revitalizing these endangered languages. Responding to this need for revitalization efforts the Scheme for Protection & Preservation of Endangered languages is organizing a 5 Day workshop on Language Documentation and Revitalization. This workshop aims to inform and introduce its participants to different models of revitalization & their suitability, designing revitalization programs, community participation in documentation & revitalization, MTBMLE, challenges in developing orthography, training native speaker to record/document, dictionary preparation and use of technology for documentation.

Interested scholars must fill the prescribed form attached herewith and send us latest by 10th Jan. 2018. Since seats are limited, applicants have to forward the application forms with approval from their PhD supervisor/Head of Department. Priority will be given to independent scholars/ doctoral & M.Phil. students/community people who are working in the areas relevant to the workshop theme. However, students enrolled in master degree programme in linguistics, and allied subjects may also apply. The Institute will reimburse 3AC fare to shortlisted participants and will also be provided with modest accommodation in the CIIL campus on prior request.

Invited Speakers

Dr. Julia Sallabank
SOAS, University of London, UK

Prof. Anvita Abbi
Hon. Director, Centre for Oral and
Tribal Literature, Sahitya Akademi, New Delhi

Prof. Peter Austin
SOAS, University of London, UK

Dr. Sheena Shah
SOAS, University of London, UK

Prof. P.K. Pandey
JNU, New Delhi

Prof. Minati Panda
JNU, New Delhi

Organizing Committee

Prof. D. G. Rao
Director, CIIL

Prof. Umarani Pappuswamy
Head, Centre for Language Documentation, CIIL

Sujoy Sarkar
Officer-in-charge, SPPEL

Venue:

Central Institute of Indian Languages
Government of India, Manasagangothri
Mysuru - 570 006

Contact Information:

sppelincharge.ciil@gmail.com
+91-9717225610