Thereafter, the Committee has taken up the important issues mentioned in the Agenda Points for taking necessary resolutions. The Committee has elaborately discussed on the Agenda Points presented by the Chairperson, GIA and arrived at the appropriate resolutions in the Meeting as detailed below :

AGENDA 1 : Ratification of Minutes of 32nd GIA Committee Meeting held at CIIL, Mysore on 22nd and 23rd January 2018.

The Minutes of the 32nd GIAC Meeting (Enclosed herewith as Annexure-I) and the action taken report was present to the committee members.

AGENDA 2 : Action Taken Report on the proposals of 32nd GIAC Meeting.

- All the 418 recommended proposals by the 32nd GIAC under four schemes of GIA have been duly processed for release of grants.
 1. In Bulk Purchase Scheme out of 212 recommended proposals, 190 proposals have been cleared for payment of grants to the grantees through PFMS.
 2. In Publication Scheme out of 24 recommended proposals 17 proposals have been cleared for payment of grants to the grantees through PFMS.
 3. In Little Magazines Scheme out of 9 recommended proposals all proposals have been cleared for payment of grants to the grantees through the PFMS.
 4. In Voluntary Organization Scheme out of 173 recommended proposals 129 proposals (1st Installment) have been cleared for payment of grants to the grantees through PFMS.
- The Ministry has released Rs.1,73,00,000/- for the financial year 2018-19.

Resolution 1 (for Agenda 1 and 2) :

The Committee has ratified the Minutes of the 32nd GIAC Meeting and the Action Taken Report.

AGENDA 3 : In total 557 (approximately) applications have been received under four schemes of GIA from the applicants throughout the country for the consideration and recommendation by the 33rd GIA Committee. (list enclosed as Annexure-II)

Resolution 2 :

At the time of preparation of the Agenda for 33rd GIAC Meeting, the GIA Unit had received 557 applications approximately and later received 97 more applications by the time the 33rd GIAC held. Hence the total number of applications placed before the 33rd GIA Committee is 654 applications. The Committee scrutinized the applications and recommended 247 applications under 4 schemes by following the GIA rules and regulations as given in the Annexures A, B, C & D.

61 applications under 4 schemes were not recommended by the 33rd GIAC.

Out of 654 applications in total only 308 applications were scrutinized by the 33rd GIAC since many language experts did not participate in the Meeting (Annexure - III). 346 applications (as listed in the Annexure - IV) were not scrutinized/recommended/not-recommended by the 33rd GIAC due to non-participation of concerned Language Experts in the 33rd GIAC Meeting.

With the permission of Chairman, GIA, a Discussion Session among the Language Experts of the 33rd GIA Committee held under the Chairmanship of Prof.D.G.Rao, Chairman of the GIA on 9th August 2019 (last day of the Meeting) at 12Noon for discussing various issues related to the GIA Scheme of CIIL. The suggestions put forward by the Language Experts present are given below for the perusal and necessary action of the Competent Authority of the Ministry:

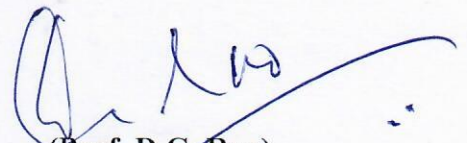

- (1) Dr. Anup Kumar Dey - Language Expert - Assam
Need for wider publicity of the GIA scheme through advertisements all over the country.
- (2) Prof. Sachidananda Mohanty - Language Expert - Odia
To improve the GIA scheme he suggested for creation of projects and constitution of Committee comprising of Language Experts available in 33rd GIAC. Need for wider publicity of the scheme.
- (3) Dr. Bhushan Bhave - Language Expert - Konkani
Suggested that the publicity of the scheme should be the duty of the Language Experts in their region. Some meeting may be arranged in various cities for this purpose. Ceiling Limit of the GIA Schemes to be enhanced immediately.

- (4) Prof. Ram Naresh Singh - Language Expert - Maithili
Suggested that Language Experts to have freedom in recommending number of copies.
- (5) Sri. Thakur Prasad Murmu - Language Expert - Santali
Suggested that the applications to be reviewed first by other concerned language experts and then to be placed before the GIAC Meeting for recommendations.
- (6) Dr. R. Subramony - Language Expert - Tamil
Positive approach towards Tamil language and culture under the GIA scheme.
- (7) Prof. Caroline R. Marak - Language Expert - Meghalaya
Suggested that District Councils to be formed for nurturing the language, culture, etc. under respective regions.
- (8) Dr. Shivdev Singh Manhas - Language Expert - Dogri
Suggested that ceiling limit of the schemes to be enhanced and applications from youths to be appreciated under GIA Scheme. Both fiction and non-fiction books to be considered for financial assistance.
- (9) Prof. Kasireddy Venkata Reddy - Language Expert - Telugu
He expressed that number of applications in GIA reducing. Suggested that ayurvedic dictionaries also to be accepted for financial assistance considering the importance. Suggested that NGO's to be stopped from applying under GIA or not to be considered under Voluntary Organisation scheme since they do not focus on the themes of the GIA. If NGO's to be considered then a representative from University, Degree College or Literary Association of the local to be included in the programme of the NGO's for availing financial assistance from GIA.
- (10) Dr. Jagbir Singh - Language Expert - Punjabi
He agreed other experts suggestions. Suggested that CIIL-GIA should invite literary persons and language experts for Meeting.
- (11) Dr. Joram Aniya Tana - Language Expert - Arunachal Pradesh
She suggested that books written with Roman script to be accepted as there are many languages in the NE region follows roman script for their languages.
- (12) Dr. Milan Rani Jamatia - Language Expert - Tripura
She expressed that whether CIIL can do some workshop for uplifting the languages groups.
- (13) Dr. Sujatha Mahajan - Language Expert - Marathi
She expressed her agreement on the views of the Language experts presented in the discussion meeting.

The following are the concluding remarks of the Chairman, GIA Prof.D.G.Rao:

- The GIA-CIIL will look into the matter of publicity of the GIA Scheme all over the country
- RLCs website to reflect GIA section under CIIL website
- Collaboration with state organization will be looked into for few programmes
- A second Meeting of 33rd GIAC to be held in this financial year since there were many language experts absent and the applications pertaining to these languages are pending for recommendation of the GIAC
- Ceiling limit of the GIA schemes will be taken up since already the matter is referred to the Ministry and reminders will be sent soon.
- Young Adult scheme will be dealt by CIIL separately with separate section.

The meeting ended with the Vote of Thanks by the Head of the GIA, Prof. P. Perumal Samy, Deputy Director, CIIL.
